

Medication Assisted Treatment

COVE BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR TREATMENT?

Our treatment program is available to men and women over the age of 18.

For opioid dependent pregnant women, treatment reduces problematic pregnancy.

WHAT MEDICATIONS ARE AVAILABLE FOR TREATMENT?

Methadone

Self pay rate $15 daily fee

Buprenorphine / Subutex

Self pay rate $20 Daily Fee

Suboxone

Once per month clinic visit

Self pay rate $260 for 1st initial admission day;

$160 for every monthly visit afterwards

PRESCRIPTION NOT INCLUDED

$230 for office visit; $30 Drug Screen = $260

$130 for office visit; $30 drug screen = $160

CONTACT US TODAY

Hours of Operation

Walk in Consultations: Tuesday & Thursday, 7am - 9am

Business Hours: 5:30am - 2pm Monday - Friday

Medication Hours: 5:30am - 10:30am Monday - Friday

6:30am - 10am Saturday - Sunday

348 W. Highland Drive
Lakeland, FL 33813

(813)608-7778

www.CoveBH.org

WHAT IS OPIOID ADDICTION

Opioid Addiction is a chronic disease, like heart disease or diabetes. Addiction is when opioids have made changes to the brain. Persons misusing opiates are at a higher risk of addiction because of their genes, temperament or personal situations. As with any chronic disease, while it cannot be cured, it can be successfully managed through the prescribed and supervised use of medication combined with counseling and drug testing.

BENEFITS PROVIDED BY COVE'S TREATMENT PROGRAMS

- Safe, medically proven treatment options
- Physicians intake and supervision of care
- Individual meetings with medical staff and counselors
- Allows a return to a normal and healthy lifestyle
- Reduces risks of cellulitis, hepatitis, and HIV
- Welcoming staff and environment
- Centrally located
- Cove accepts multiple payment options

Cove Behavioral Health has been accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities since 1994.

In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehab Act of 1993 and Title II of Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Cove Behavioral Health is committed to accommodating the special needs of all individuals by ensuring the availability of appropriate aids, if requested. Our employees received specialized training to accommodate all special needs.

